Stan Laurel in this Comedy depicts one of the characters, which he has made famous, namely that of an inebrated young man, who mistakes the iron tree guard for the bars of a Jail, and in this condition has a great many amusing, exciting, and thrilling adventures, which cumulate in his finding himself awake in the wrong bed.

The rightful proprietor, arrives, and finds that Stan has usurped the place, which rightfully should be occupied by his wife. This situation results in an exciting and most thrilling chase which finally sobers Stan.
